

Page Denied

A Richard Nixon statement that Kennedy was told during the 1960 election campaign of U.S. plans to support an invasion of Cuba was challenged by the White House. It said the Central Intelligence Agency did not tell Kennedy about the proposed invasion until after he had been elected President. The White House statement was backed up by Allen Dulles, who headed the CIA at the time. The former Vice President charged in a new book he has written that Kennedy endangered U.S. security when he came out publicly last Oct. 20 for U.S. intervention in Cuba.